

Wedding Bible

Saturday, 1 November 2008

“5 Star Sanctuary in the City”

Hayfield Manor is a luxurious hotel in Cork City , in the South West of Ireland, Only a short walk to Cork city’s busy centre, but uniquely set in two acres of tranquil, leafy grounds.

This deluxe 5 star hotel has been planned with meticulous care. The owners Joe and Margaret Scally are both very much hands on in the day to day management along with their daughter Annemarie who had previously pursued a career in interior design. Anne-Marie has brought her interior design flair to the fore at Hayfield Manor, the results of which can be seen in their recently renovated and uniquely redesigned gourmet restaurant Orchids, in the unique style of Perrotts Garden Bistro, and without question in Anne – Marie’s latest project, The Beautique, Hayfield Manors exclusive Health and Treatment Rooms. Hayfield Manor combines grandeur and luxury with the comforts and facilities found only in the most modern establishments. Hotel guests can expect the charm and character of an inviting Manor House, while enjoying 5 star amenities in Corks first 5 star Hotel.

A member of Small Luxury Hotels of the world, the team at Hayfield Manor understand the finer points of hospitality and luxury where first class service is the norm rather than the exception. Hayfield Manor is also a proud member of Irelands Blue Book which is a unique guide to Irelands most charming Country Houses, Castles and Restaurants. Many guests love Hayfield Manors air of comfortable indulgence. The hotels resident lounges, The Drawing Room and the Library, are there to fill those magical moments that means you are on holidays. Leave everyday routine far behind, as morning coffee, sumptuous afternoon tea and after dinner gatherings becomes a must while residing in Hayfield Manor.

Hayfield Manor offers its guests an uncompromising level of services, personal yet efficient. It has a very relaxing atmosphere and charm, popular with both residential guests and Corkonians alike. The hotels location is convenient to fine dining, shopping and entertainment venues. In Cork you are never too far from a golf course. Angling tennis, equestrian and clay pigeon shooting also prove popular with guests. The Hotel has a nine treatment room and relaxation centre called The Beautique Health and Treatment rooms, where residents enjoy a wide range of private facilities including an outdoor Jacuzzi, Steam Room, Gym and Indoor Heated Pool. Guests can enjoy a selection of Elemis Spa Therapies to revitalise, workouts to invigorate, and massages to ease away the strains of modern living.

Today it stands as the premier 5 star Hotel in Cork city and country area with 88 Guestrooms and Suites, two Restaurants, a Bar, a number of purpose built Meeting Rooms, two Private Dining Rooms, A Health Spa, Valet Car Parking and Gardens.

Health and Beauty Facilities:

The Beautique Health and Treatment rooms, classic in design, were created using the theme “Chandeliers, Pearls and Girls.” Unique to each of the nine Treatment Rooms are Chandeliers, Vintage Perfumes Bottles, and Antique Style Furnishings and elaborate Mirrors.

The Relaxation Suite overlooks the Indoor Heated Pool adjacent to the Outdoor Jacuzzi and Steam Room. The Beautique also has a cardiovascular and free weight gym.

Perrotts Garden Bistro:

Perrotts Garden Bistro is the hotels exciting contemporary style Bistro offering an informal menu with a New York/ Mediterranean influence, perfect for lunch and dinner seven days a week.

Orchids:

More formal dining where dressing up seems natural. The menus are influenced by the best of contemporary Irish cuisine, the most important element being the best ingredients in season, ensuring each dish is full of natural flavour and not dominated by overpowering flavours and sauces. Elegantly appointed overlooking the original walled gardens, Orchids is open from Tuesday to Saturday inclusive.

Corks Newest Fine Dining Facility was recently launched to much acclaim. This unique subterranean private dining room (which can seat up to 30 guests) is also home to the hotels private wine cellar, creating a unique display of the wines from around the world.