

Utopia Magazine

November 2008

Article: Entertaining at home

Orchids restaurant in the five- star Hayfield Manor Hotel

Take a stroll through two acres of tranquil, leafy grounds in Cork, Ireland and discover Hayfield Manor. The inviting manor house is a five- star hotel, which combines grandeur and opulence with the comforts and facilities found in the most modern establishments. Within this heavenly haven- Corks first five-star hotel- is a restaurant that serves in the best contemporary Irish cuisine. The newly renovated Orchids restaurant overlooks the hotels original walled gardens and terrace, and provides an unforgettable formal dining experience. The most important element of head chef Graeme Campbell's menu is its fresh, seasonal ingredient, which give each dish flavouring.